

DEVELOPMENT & VIABILITY - DOES IT STACK UP?!

BREAKFAST MEETING

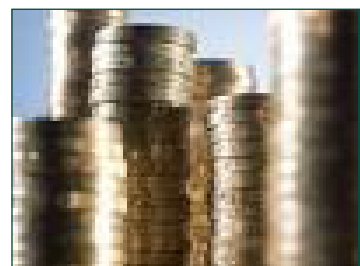

THURSDAY 15 OCTOBER 2009

Can you still afford to pay for the package of benefits required as part of your development? Did you turn pale when considering the implications of affordable housing on your bottom line? Worried about CIL? Do you want to (re)negotiate?

In the current climate viability assessments increasingly form part of a planning application for residential development. Peter Taylor, a leading planning solicitor from DLA Piper, will provide an overview on pursuing currently unviable proposals having regard to recent case law and the scope for renegotiation as well as the implications of CIL. Let's stack it to them!

Venue: Aviator Hotel, Sywell, Northampton NN6 OBN
Registration: 7.45am
Breakfast: 8.00am
Presentation: 8.30am
